

A Global Forest Coalition Newsletter on International Forest Policy

Issue no.39, November 2011

About Forest Cover

Welcome to the thirty-ninth issue of Forest Cover, the newsletter of the Global Forest Coalition (GFC).

GFC is a world-wide coalition of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and Indigenous Peoples Organizations (IPOs). GFC promotes rights-based, socially just and effective forest policies at international and national level, including through building capacity of NGOs and IPOs in all regions to influence global forest policy.

Forest Cover is published four times a year. It features reports on important inter-governmental meetings by different NGOs and IPOs, and a calendar of future meetings.

The views expressed in this newsletter do not necessarily reflect the views of the GFC, its donors or the editors.
